NEW BUSINESS

Consider a Temporary Use Permit to Erect a 20' by 40' White Tent from April 2, 2018 to May 13, 2018 at The Stilt House Restaurant Located at W62 N630 Washington Avenue; and Action Thereon.

Gordon Goggin represented The Stilt House. He hopes to aid a few worthy local organizations by sponsoring fundraisers, Dining to Donate, in which patrons eat at his restaurant and he donates a portion of the profits to the organization. Right now he is talking to Thorson Elementary, the Cedarburg Scholarship Fund, and the Alzheimer's Association. The tent offers additional seating for the fundraisers.

Bob Ross expressed that he doesn't care for the look of the tent, and wishes it would be further back from the street and less visible, however acknowledges it is for a good cause.

Chairperson Jepsen noted that when this tent was installed last fall she had some concerns but now that she knows the reason for the tent she has no objection.

Motion made by Tomi Fay Forbes, seconded by Doug Yip, to issue the Temporary Use permit. Motion carried without a negative vote with James Pape and Council Member Thome excused.
